

Mutual Trading, Inc. Japanese Sake Spec Sheet

Founded	1918
Profile	Seki no Ichi Brewery was a small sake brewery located in Southern Ichinose City, Iwate Prefecture. Now they have a restaurant and in 1995 they renovated an old rice storage facility into the "Iwate Kura Beer" brewery. They make unique, undeniably Japanese beers.

Product Name	Iwatekura Bakushu Oyster Stout
---------------------	--------------------------------

Item Number	1138
Case Contents	24 bottles
Size	330ml
Method	Top Cropping
Style	Oyster Stout
Malt	Pale Ale Malt
Malt Origin	England
Hops	Kent Goldings
Hops Origin	England
Filtration	No (Unfiltered)
Tank Type	Airtight
Best Before	Within 120 days
Limited Item	No
Introduced in	2006
ABV	7.0%
Brewery Location	Iwate Prefecture

Nose	Sea salt and chocolate
-------------	------------------------

Flavor	Deep stout flavor with chocolate and coffee notes
---------------	---------------------------------------------------

Food Pairings	Lobster, Smoked Salmon, Raw Oysters and other Oyster Dishes
----------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------

Tasting Notes	An Old English style with a Japanese twist - brewed with whole oysters from Sanriku Hirota bay in Iwate Prefecture!
----------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Awards	2006 Japan Beer Cup Gold Award 2008 World Beer Cup Silver Award
---------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------