

New York Mutual Trading, Inc.
Japanese Beer Spec Sheet

Brewery	Seki no Ichi Brewery
Founded	1918
Profile	Seki no Ichi Brewery was a small sake brewery located in Southern Ichinose City, Iwate Prefecture. Now they have a restaurant, and in 1995 they renovated an old rice storage facility into the "Iwate Kura Beer" brewery. They make unique, undeniably Japanese beers.

Product Name	Sansho Ale
---------------------	------------

Item Number	3187
Case Contents	24 bottles
Size	330ml
Method	Top Cropping
Style	Herb Ale (Sansho Pepper)
Malt	Pale Ale Malt
Malt Origin	England
Hops	Perle
Hops Origin	German
Filtration	No (Unfiltered)
Tank Type	Sealed
Best Before	Within 120 days
Limited Item	No (Regular Item)
Introduced in	2010
ABV	5.0%
Brewery Location	Iwate Prefecture

Nose	Citrus, Pepper
-------------	----------------

Flavor	Pale Ale that is a little spicy and a little bitter
---------------	---

Food Pairings	Sushi, Carpaccio, Unagi
----------------------	-------------------------

Tasting Notes	Sansho - a highly regarded Japanese peppercorn that is a core ingredient of "shichimi" - is used in the brewing of this very unique Japanese Ale.
----------------------	---

Awards	2012 International Beer Competition Silver Award 2013 International Beer Competition Gold Award
---------------	--