

Mutual Trading, Inc. Japanese Sake Spec Sheet

Brewery	Tatenokawa Brewery
Founded	1832
Profile	Tatenokawa Brewery - the producer of Tatenokawa Junmai Daiginjo - is based in Yamagata Prefecture, which is known as a fruit kingdom in Japan. Their Liqueurs are low in alcohol, and sipping them is just like biting into a fruit - truly a drink you can "eat". Perfect for those of us who don't drink often, or who cannot handle alcohol well.

Product Name	Tatenokawa Kodakara Yuzu Sake
---------------------	-------------------------------

Item Number	9579
Case Contents	12 bottles
Size	720ml
Base	Sake
Ingredient	Yuzu
Ingredient Origin	Kochi Prefecture
Alcohol by Volume	8%
Aged	Less than 1 year
Introduced in	2009
Brewery Location	Yamagata
Brewery Head	Junpei Sato

SWEET	SEMI-SWEET	SEMI-DRY	DRY
<input type="radio"/>

FRAGRANT	LIGHT	AGED	RICH
<input type="radio"/>

APERITIF	APPETIZER	MAIN DISH	DIGESTIF
<input type="radio"/>

Food Pairings

Tasting Notes
Tatenokawa's Kodakara Yuzu Sake uses high quality Yuzu from Kochi Prefecture, which are known for their excellent aromatics. This sake thusly has a distinctive yuzu citrus flavor, and is excellent both chilled and on the rocks.	